Nesvik assumes command of field artillery battalion

SHERIDAN, Wyo. – Maj. Brian Nesvik, of Pinedale, will assume command of the Wyoming Army National Guard's 2nd Battalion, 300th Field Artillery, on Saturday at Camp Guernsey Joint Training Center.

Nesvik takes command from Lt. Col. Rich Knowlton.

"The Wyoming Army National Guard is entering a very exciting time in its history and Maj. Nesvik is an excellent choice to lead the battalion at this time," said Brig. Gen. Olin Oedekoven, assistant adjutant general, Wyoming Army National Guard.

Nesvik was the commander of the 2-300th in Iraq from 2004-2005. While in Iraq his unit was responsible for security of Iraqi government leaders, among others.

The 2-300th Field Artillery Battalion has units in Casper, Cody, Douglas, Gillette, Lander, Lovell, Powell, Sheridan, and Worland.
